MEETING ROOM GUIDELINES

Please read IHA's McCormick Place Meeting Room Policy in full. By checking each box and signing below, you acknowledge that your company will abide by IHA's guidelines.

The meeting room user must be an exhibiting company or an approved registered retailer at The Inspired Home Show 2024.

If an exhibitor cancels their booth space in the Show, IHA will automatically cancel all meeting room requests.

Meeting room utilization is for food functions and meetings only. Product displays are prohibited during Show hours unless approved by IHA. Violation of this policy will result in loss of seniority and expulsion from the Show. Exhibitors may conduct private product showings in their booth or take advantage of the complimentary exhibit floor meeting rooms.

Meeting room users may place one (1) sign outside of their room. If additional signs are placed outside the room or leading to the room, IHA has the right to remove them.

There will be one (1) meeting room allocated per exhibiting company, unless previously approved by IHA.

Meeting rooms will be assigned and contracted with McCormick Place, not IHA. However, IHA must approve all meeting room requests prior to assignment.

You must submit a diagram of your room layout, specifically indicating how the room should be set and the requirements needed from McCormick Place.

A daily fee will apply for each day your company uses a McCormick Place meeting room, including set-up and tear-down. McCormick Place invoices will be sent after the close of the Show.

Meeting rooms will be assigned in the following order:

1. Exhibitors and Retailers that had contracted a meeting room for the 2023 Show. Exhibitors must have booth space in the 2024 Show.
2. Retailers registered for the 2024 Show.
3. Exhibiting companies for the 2024 Show, by date received.

McCormick Place will begin meeting room assignment in January, by sending a confirmation and a contract to your company.
